DECLARATION OF SAMEER SIKANDER

I, Sameer Sikander, declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States, as follows:

1. I am the Manager of Respondent Gresham World Shipping Corp. (hereinafter "Gresham") and have held this position since January 11, 2008. I am an individual of majority age, and I speak and read English fluently.

2. I submit this Declaration (a) in opposition to the Verified Petition and motion for relief brought by Petitioners against Gresham, seeking recognition and enforcement of an arbitration award issued in favor of Petitioners and against Respondent International Oil Overseas, Inc. ("IOOI") and (b) in support of the Cross-Motion filed by Gresham to Dismiss the Verified Complaint. In particular, I submit this Declaration to specifically address certain allegations made by Petitioners regarding personal jurisdiction, venue and their claim that Gresham is a so-called "alter ego" of IOOI.

3. Insofar as the contents of this Declaration are within my own knowledge, they are true. Insofar as the contents of this Declaration are not within my own direct knowledge, they are true to the best of my information and belief.

4. Gresham is a Panamanian corporation duly organized and registered under the laws of the Republic of Panama since 17 February 1995 upon the filing of its Articles of Incorporation, Public Deed Number 1,276, in the City of Panama, where it has its registered office c/o local agents, with a business presence in Saudi Arabia.

5. Gresham is a wholly owned subsidiary of Bakri Navigation Co. (Bermuda) Ltd, which in turn is owned by A.K. Bakri & Sons Ltd Bermuda.

6. It is a corporate affiliate of other subsidiaries of its parent, Bakri Navigation Co. (Bermuda) Ltd.

7. Gresham is not a corporate affiliate of IOOI. Gresham and IOOI do not have any common shareholders, directors or officers nor do they own shares in any common companies.

8. Gresham transacts its business in its own name and is independently managed and operated for its own profit and corporate purposes.

9. Gresham maintains corporate formalities in accordance with the laws of Panama, including compliance with annual tax requirements and payment of fees of local agents.

10. Gresham maintains a bank account in its own name and is capitalized in accordance with the laws of Panama.

11. Gresham and IOOI do not participate in any joint ventures with one another but have done business in the past pursuant to arm's length transactions. Gresham does not act as a so-called "paying agent" on behalf of IOOI, nor does it guarantee obligations of IOOI, and vice versa.

12. Gresham was not a party to the underlying charter party transactions or the London arbitration agreements that were entered into between IOOI and Petitioners. Nor was Gresham a party to or a witness in the related London arbitration proceedings that transpired between Petitioners and IOOI.

13. Gresham currently has four employees, all of whom reside in Saudi Arabia.

14. All commercial and corporate records of Gresham are maintained by the company in Saudi Arabia.

15. With respect to New York, Gresham does not maintain an office, employees, agents or bank accounts within the State.

16. Gresham does not conduct any of its business in New York or elsewhere in the United States and is not otherwise authorized to do business with the New York Secretary of State.

17. Gresham does not have any investment in fixed assets or securities within the United States and does not export or import anything to or from the United States.

18. In the Verified Petition, Petitioners allege that “Respondents are subject to personal jurisdiction in this District by virtue of funds and other property that they have deposited with the Clerk of this Court....”

19. These funds were deposited at the direction of Gresham as well as other respondents improperly named as purported alter egos of IOOI in the matter of Andros Maritime Co. Ltd. v. International Oil Overseas, Inc., No. 11 Civ. 1657 (WHP), in which the petitioner, Andros Maritime Co. Ltd. (“Andros”), attempted to enforce a default judgment that was improperly entered in its favor and against Gresham, resulting in a disruption to Gresham’s operations.

20. In the Andros Maritime matter, the first time that Gresham learned that a default judgment had been entered against it was when it was contacted by its banks notifying it of the Andros plaintiff’s service of post-judgment “restraining notices” in New York.

21. In an effort to alleviate the disruption caused by the Andros plaintiff’s collection efforts concerning the invalid default judgment entered against it, Gresham together with the other improperly named alter egos of IOOI posted security into the Registry of the Court on a joint and several basis pending the outcome of the alleged alter egos’ motion to vacate the default judgment as against them.

22. In Andros Maritime, Andros and the principal respondent, IOOI, engaged in settlement discussions which ultimately proved successful in resolving the claim that Andros brought against IOOI due to payment direct to Andros by IOOI. Andros agreed to dismiss the entire action, but before that was accomplished, the attorneys who were representing Andros in that case applied for and obtained an ex parte Rule B attachment on behalf of other parties in a new matter captioned

Springsea Maritime Corp. v. International Oil Overseas Inc., No. 11 Civ. 7821 (JGK), re-attaching the same funds that otherwise would have been released to Gresham and the other improperly named alleged alter ego respondents on a joint and several basis upon settlement of the Andros matter.

23. In the Springsea matter, Gresham has not yet moved to vacate the attachment because IOOI has advised that (a) it is in settlement discussions with the Springsea plaintiffs and (b) it is in a position to argue that the underlying claims by the Springsea plaintiffs are untimely or otherwise stale. To the extent that IOOI succeeds in either (a) settling the dispute or (b) successfully disposing of the Springsea claims as a matter of law, it is more economical for Gresham to leave the funds in place and to be reimbursed for the loss of use of the funds by the unsuccessful litigant in Springsea.

I declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
